Dear Sadharmik Brothers, Sisters
Jai Jinendra! Pranam!

As informed yesterday, we had a court hearing today for the motion filed by the law firm retained by former BOT Chairman to collect $62,498.44 from our Sangh for the legal services rendered.

Court has denied the motion today.

Please see the letter by our Sangh lawyer Colin G Bell.

Dear Mr. Shah:

I appeared today on behalf of the Jain Sangh in opposition to the motion filed by Salaman Grayson P.C. seeking an award of attorney's fees and costs in the amount of $62,498.44 against the temple.

We argued that not only is the Jain Sangh not responsible for Mr. Grayson's bill, but that he had not followed the proper procedures for attempting to collect attorney's fees. The judge agreed with our position that he had not followed the proper procedures and denied the motion.

This means for right now, the Jain Sangh is not required to pay anything. However, the judge declined to address the merits of the claim and Mr. Grayson can re-file his application in the appropriate forum. If and when he files a proper application, I will evaluate it and give you my advice on how best to respond.

Obviously, we will continue to vigorously defend against any attempt to hold the Jain Sangh responsible for these legal fees and seek to recoup any fees the temple does incur from the party that rightfully should be responsible for payment of the Salaman Grayson bill.

Should you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Very truly yours,
Hankin, Sandman, Palladino
& Weintrob, P.C.
Colin G. Bell, Esquire

Sincerely,

Sanjay Shah,
